

Please Join Us For an Evening With Fr. Greg Boyle

Fr. Greg Boyle, S.J. will be the featured keynote speaker at Serra High School's next Parent Night on Monday, November 20. Fr. Boyle is the author of the popular book, "Tattoos on the Heart." His talk will begin at 7 p.m. in the Serra auditorium. This event is open to the local community.

Fr. Boyle is an internationally-acclaimed author, prophetic orator and a man for change. He will share how compassion, kindness and kinship are the tools to fight despair and decrease marginalization. Through his stories and parables, all will be reminded that no life is less valuable than another.

Members of Serra's Mission and Brotherhood Program invited Fr. Boyle to speak. Copies of Fr. Boyle's book, "Tattoos on the Heart: The Power of Boundless Compassion," and his new book, "Barking to the Choir: The Power of Radical Kinship," will be available for purchase and signing after his talk on Monday evening.

The following day, Fr. Boyle will speak at the annual Thanksgiving Prayer Service to students, faculty and staff members. He will touch on the values elicited in the definition of brotherhood: respect, compassion, inclusion and integrity.
