MISSION STATEMENT

We, the community of Mercy High School, Burlingame, a Catholic college preparatory school sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy, educate young women of diverse religious, ethnic, social and economic backgrounds to reverence and foster the dignity of each human person, to create a community of hospitality, to lead with compassion, to strive for excellence, and to proclaim Gospel values in word and deed.

SCHOOL COMMUNITY

Mercy High School, a Catholic college preparatory school founded in 1931, is dedicated to educating young women of all cultural and economic backgrounds for academic excellence, compassionate service, Christian leadership, global awareness, and life-long learning. Rooted in Catherine McAuley's unique vision for women and the poor, Mercy High School is sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy. The faculty and staff work in collaboration with the Sisters of Mercy to create a Christian community which values hospitality and the dignity of each person. Mercy High School challenges its faculty, staff and students to act with integrity and work for justice.

Located on the Peninsula within the San Francisco Bay Area, Mercy draws students from as far south as Palo Alto, as far north as San Francisco.

Mercy's current enrollment is 382 young women. There are 67 faculty on staff, and the student: faculty ratio is 11:1, and there are 4 full-time counselors on staff. The average class size is 18 students.

Admission is by entrance examination, recommendations, elementary school grades, and interview.

ACCREDITATIONS AND AFFILIATIONS

Mercy High School is one of 38 high schools sponsored by the Mercy Education System of the Americas. Mercy High School is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges and the Western Catholic Education Association.
